4. Participant's opinion about their personal & professional development

I went to Spain because I wanted to experience a new culture, meet new people and see new things in the world. I am training to be a hairdresser, I had a really great traineeship and a great atmosphere, during my apprenticeship I dyed my hair, modelled and even washed my hair. In my spare time I went to the beach to sunbathe and swim, and I also went downtown to shop and eat.

4. Participant's opinion about their personal & professional development

I went to Spain because I wanted to see the culture of this country and how carpenters work here and whether they are different from Polish carpenters. In Spain I like the fact that everyone is not tense and takes things calmly, that we have time and don't have to rush like in Poland. In Malaga I was surprised by how positive people are, you can chat with everyone, joke around and also have a nice view and perfect food. In Spain I am doing an apprenticeship in a carpentry workshop creating doors, my tasks include guiding sliders, gluing, screwing with a screwdriver and much more. I am certainly responsible for tidiness, because the plant is constantly dirty and has to be cleaned. And the practice differs in that, as I said, nobody is in a hurry here, you live here to enjoy yourself, you don't have to be all for now like in Poland just at ease. And I use my free time in the centre of the tourist attractions as well as on the beach swimming in the sea or just sitting with friends.

I wanted to go to Spain for an internship because I knew I would get to know the culture, the food, the sights. What surprised me about Spain is that the people here are very nice, and I was also surprised by the food, which is completely different from Polish food. As for my internship, I do it in a sports shop. Mostly my job consists of fixing items with clips to prevent theft or putting them on the shelves of the shop. In Spain it is completely different from Poland with regard to internships, but maybe this is just my impression, because in Poland I do my internship in a grocery shop. In our free time we go out and visit beautiful Malaga and, of course, go to the beach.

I wanted to go to Spain because I knew it would give me new motivation and ideas and I could learn a lot. I like the culture and art of this country. In Malaga, I was surprised at how we were greeted with sympathy and smiles. I work in a hairdresser's shop where I have a boss and very nice colleagues. My duties include washing hair, colouring it, cleaning my work station. The practices in Poland look different from those in Spain, we have a different way of working in Poland than in Spain. In our free time after the practices we usually go sightseeing, but we usually spend this time with friends playing board games or watching movies. I recommend everyone to make such a trip to Spain with Erasmus+ both to see a piece of the world and to learn more about practice here in your profession.

I wanted to go to Spain because it had been my dream since first grade. What surprised me most was that Spaniards are calmer and more sociable people than Poles, and especially the view of Malaga, which was breathtaking in certain places. I work in the company 'Manuel Carbonell Gallego' and my duties include maintaining order in the workplace, grouting, filling and cutting tiles. The apprenticeship in Poland is very different because there are different methods, for example grouting, masonry and finishing work. In my free time, I usually walked around the neighbourhood or chatted with friends and, with the teachers' permission, went to the gym.

I came to Spain to experience a new culture, the Spanish way of life and to learn about the work process in the sports shop where I had just done my monthly internship. On this trip, I achieved all my goals. During my internship in this shop, I learnt how to integrate with the staff in English, secured items from possible theft, kept the workplace tidy and was happy to help other employees. The internship in Poland is different from the one in Spain, because in Poland it is stricter, whereas in Spain I appreciated that there is much more work flexibility. In our free time, we made several excursions to the beach, the city centre, the museum and the mountains.

4. Participant's opinion about their personal & professional development

I wanted to come to Spain because I would like to present my school and my profession and visit this beautiful place. As for the places I visited, for example Marbella, Cordova, and the activities such as flamenco, the Pablo Picasso museum, what particularly surprised me were the places where there were paintings by various artists, the beach, and the centre where I often hang out with friends. In terms of professional practice, I work in the confitería panadería El Romero, where I am training as a baker and my daily tasks were to prepare cakes, biscuits, buns, muffins, birthday cakes, so my job was to ensure cleanliness and hygiene at work. Like any employee, I am responsible for ensuring that the meal I prepare is not contaminated, well decorated and well kept clean (washing my hands each time). Practices in Spain are very different from those in Poland, because in Spain I mainly bake pastries and I love to make decorations whereas in Poland I only bake bread and it is a quicker and less creative activity. In my free time I spend time with my friends, we visit various places in Malaga, sometimes we go to the beach or to the centre, but we also spend some nice time at the residence.

1. Mobility project preparation & Induction

Before the participants arrived, Euromind provided them with a pre-arrival guide packed with essential information about local transportation, social activities, and emergency contacts. Additionally, Euromind organized online meetings to introduce themselves to the participants and conduct interviews. Following these interviews, a dedicated group on social media was established, facilitating ongoing communication between Euromind, the selected participants, and their accompanying teachers, fostering a sense of community even before their arrival in the host country.

Drawing upon a thorough evaluation of participants' CVs and interview outcomes, Euromind carefully matched each individual with suitable host organizations. Ensuring compliance with all necessary regulations, Euromind individually prepared Learning Agreements for each participant and ensured that all involved parties signed the required documents.

Upon the group's arrival, Euromind hosted a welcoming meeting where participants were introduced to the Euromind team and briefed on the program agenda, accommodation guidelines, and dissemination strategy options. Subsequently, the Euromind team accompanied participants to meet their designated mentors at the host organizations, acquainting them with their workplace environment.

To aid in their integration into the local community, participants were taken on a neighbourhood tour, familiarizing them with nearby amenities such as banks, post offices, supermarkets, and bus stations. This comprehensive approach aimed to facilitate participants' smooth transition and adaptation to their new surroundings.

2. Monitoring & Mentoring

To ensure the fulfillment of Learning Agreement objectives and the seamless integration of participants into work culture, monitoring was conducted collaboratively by all project stakeholders. Euromind designated a coordinator responsible for introducing participants to the host organization(s).

Throughout the program, mid-term and final monitoring and evaluations were conducted to review participant tasks, progress, and gauge satisfaction levels from both participants and host organizations. Following the mid-term evaluation, the coordinator met with participants to discuss the results. Any areas of concern were addressed privately to allow for open discussion and problem-solving.

Host organizations appointed staff members as tutors to assist, inform, guide, and supervise participant work. These tutors held regular meetings with participants to assess their presence, discuss tasks, and adjust responsibilities as needed based on company and participant requirements.

At the program's conclusion, during a farewell session, Euromind distributed evaluation sheets for participants to assess their experience in Spain, their work placements, and Euromind's performance. Euromind remained available to participants 24/7 for emergency assistance.

3. Communication

Euromind takes good care of successful communication between companies and trainees. Each evaluation of work is aimed at improving the quality of cooperation. Each party is thoroughly checked and assessed and the necessary improvements are introduced. Moreover, Euromind mediates in this supervisor-trainee collaboration by translating and solving language-connected complicated matters.

4. Dissemination strategy

Euromind actively participated in preparing and disseminating project results alongside the sending organization and participants. Throughout the mobility program, Euromind organized weekly one-hour meetings with participants to monitor their progress and ensure they gathered all necessary information regarding their work placements and stay in the host country. The materials produced by participants served as valuable tools for disseminating project results to all stakeholders involved.

Participants had the flexibility to work either individually or in groups. On the first day, they were required to decide on the method(s) they would use to document their professional experiences. Typically, the entire group created a Facebook page, recognized for its effectiveness and accessibility to a wide audience. This platform appealed particularly to young people, allowing them to share their experiences instantly.

Apart from the Facebook fan page, the trainees were encouraged to prepare a PowerPoint presentation in English which they would be able to use to disseminate the results of the project back home (conferences, meetings with other students, parents, etc.).

Euromind also disseminates the project at a local level. It organises language and cultural exchanges between the international trainees and students from local vocational colleges. During those meetings both Spanish and International students are involved in a number of activities the aim of which is to get to know each other, share experiences related to work experiences and in general their stay in Spain. The students also exchange information about their countries and cultures.

5. Certification

At the conclusion of their stay, participants received comprehensive validation of their acquired skills, knowledge, and competencies through various recognition methods, including:

- Training Certificate
- Europass Mobility Certificate
- Transcript of Records reflecting acquired learning outcomes
- Language Course Certificate, if applicable

1. Project promotion (dissemination) meetings with euromind Coordinator (1 hour per week)
